MR, LEMP'S HORSES WERE IN EVIDENCE,

Macon and Terra Incognita Carried the Young Brewer's Colors to Victory.

MISS MAE DAY'S MERAMEC.

Crack 3-Year-Old Filly Bought for $3,500 Out of a Selling Stake -Exciting Finish Between Juveniles.

Stubbs Bros.' sterling 3-year-old filly, Miss Mac Day, showed her heels to the best lot of horses in training at the Fuir Grounds in the Meramec Stakes at a mile and seventy yards, which was the feature event of Saturday's card. The stake had a guaranteed value of $1,500, of which ILNO went to the winner. Miss Mae Day always ruled a strong favorite at odds on, and she justified the confidence of her backers by winning in a common canter from Felix Bare, with Male third.

The race was a selling affair, and the winner had been entered to be sold for $2.500 When offered for sale after her victory, Harry Robinson, the owner of Molo and Sidbow, stepped to the front and bid her up $3,500, at which figure she was knocked down to him. After the transfer was reported that Mr. Robinson had bought the filly for Chris Schawscker, Republican boss of the Fifth Ward. When asked about the matter, Mr. Schuwacker refused to affirm or deay that he was in-

Miss Mae Day is a brown filly by imp. Hermence-Anla Lala. She was a fairly frequent winner in her 2-year-old form and her performances here this season would indicate that she is about the best 3-year-indicate that she is about the bost sycholodifilly in the West.

A description of the stake race is easily given. The Robinson entry, Sidbow and Molo, fared badly at the post, one being kicked, while Sidbow was jumped on. Sidbow had speed and cut some figure in the race for about a half mile, but collapsed whole race for about a half mile, but collapsed when the real contention commenced. Molo, on the other hand, had little early speed, but came with vigor at the end and snatched third money from Forget Not. The latter broke running and showed the way around the first turn. Then Miss Mae Day took command of the procession and made the running the reat of the way, under wraps. After Sidbow shot his bolt on the back stretch. Felix Bard dropped into second pince and galloped along behind Miss Mae Day the rest of the route.

Mr. Louis Lemp's popular red jacket and stretch. Felix Hard dropped into second place and galloped along behind Miss Mae Day the rest of the route.

Ar. Louis Lemps popular red jacket and black cap flashed to the front on two different occasions, Macon winning for the Joung St. Louis brewer in the third race, while Terra incognita captured the last event for him. Macon is one of the mest improved horses at the track. He is a 3-year-old bay gesifing by imp. Kismet- filter bress. He falled to show sign of heing a race norse in als 2-year-old farm, but it will take a shifty sort of a plater o) trim him right now. He simply played will his field yesterday. Imperious, Chickamauga and Jimp were among the good ones that finished behind him.

Terra Incognita and M. S. Hughess good mare Lady Callahan had a battle royal in the closing event. Winter flashed tor a half mile of so and then collapsed tadly. Banish ruined his chances by sweving at the head of the stretch. Lady Callahan looked like all over a winter at the sixteenth pole, but Terra Incognita came like a ghost at the end, getting up just in time to nip Lady Callahan, and the old mare ran a decidedly impeaved race under him Wallie Dale rode a superb race on the winter.

Tom Hurns's old gelding, Bridgeton, was made an 8 to 6 favorite in the opening event. He was much the best horse in the race and gailoped over Koselo and Sun God without being extended. Mr. Lemp's Silent Priend, a handsome, but apparently no-account son of Bassettlaw, finished unplaced in this race.

Christy & Thompson's handy Order filley.

that have the state of the stat in the second race in easy fasion.

The only juvenile dash of the afternoon provoked a most spirited contest. Obla, Seide, Sard and Fred Hessig were all backed heavily and the first three gave their supporters a great run for their coin. Fred Hessig hud the speed of the banch and led his horses into the stretch. In the run home, however, the Schorr coit weakened visibly and failed to finish instite the money. Mr. Schulte's Azra coit, Seide, and J. C. Cahn's Sard buckled up at the sixteenth pole and made things hum the rest of the way. Opposite the betting rins it looked as though Obla would also get into the game, but Seide and Sard drew away from him at the end, the Schulte colt winning by a head in a hard drive. Obla was third, beaten three lengths.

Granter outsprinted some of the speedlest horses in at the track in the sixth race. Joseph D. Lucas's useful gelding Hi-Noc-Ker, the post favorite, received the worst of it at the start. He was all but left and had to run around his horses. From where he got off he run the distance in 1:34 fait, while the time for the race was 1:15. Dan Honig's mare Theory also had had luck and did not run to her true form.

SIDNEY LUCAS'S STAKE.

Top Gallant Colt Captured a Valuable Event at Washington Park.

Chicago, July 14.—Twenty thousand people yelled themselves hoarse at Washington Park to-day as Sidney Lucas, the Derby winner, won the Turf Congress Handkap by five good lengths, pulled up almost to a walk, and equaling the track record of 1:584. The game 3-year-old made the rest of his field look like common selling platers and forced the pacemakers to go so fast that they were ready to quit at the finish. Fiy by Night, the hot favorite, finished absolutely last. Event at Washington Park.

Fly by Night, the hot favorite, innished ac-solutely last.

Richard Thompson, the trainer of the champion 3-year-old, had been handing in money so fast that the odds of 2 to 1 had been pounded down to 7 to 5. Thompson estimated his wincings at not less than $50,00. Louis Ezell's filly, The Lady, ran a game race, setting the pace, and got the place money by a short margin, while Ser-reno, who was recently bought for $1,100, unished third.

In the first race Garry Hermann was the avertie at prohibitive adds. He had no diffavorite at prohibitive adds. He had no difficulty in winning.

May Beach was an odds-on favorite in the second and won with ease. The time1.23, was about the fastest covered on the local tracks this season. The summaries:

BARNEY SCHREIBER'S CASE.

BARNEY SCHREIBER'S CASE. Hawthorne Track Invites the St. Louis Horseman to Race There. Chicago, July 14.—Barney Schreiber will race at Hawthorne next week and for the rest of the season, despite the ban of suspension recently placed on him by the Washington Park stewards. Hawthorne officials have invited Schreiber to make entries, regardless of the action taken by the Washington Park Association, and he has done so. The Hawthorne officials say they feel justified in their course by a careful analysis of the Turf Congress rules.

TROTTING AND PACING.

Detroit's Sixteenth Annual Meeting to He Inaugurated This Week.

Detroit, July 14.—All the classes announced for the sixteenth annual blue ribbon meeting of the Detroit Driving Club are filled. Pully 400 horses are stabled at the grounds at Grosse Point track, some 200 of them being entered for next week's events. The stakes amount to 44,000. The principal event of Monday will be the 55,000 Chamber of Commerce stake for 2.24 class pacers, which has twenty-four entries. Other races scheduled for Monday are the Cadillac stake, for 2.14 trosters, a 2.11 pace and a 2.19 trot, both the latter to be decided by two in three heats.

The feature of Tuesday will be the annual Merchants and Manufacturers' Stake of $19,000, for 2.24 trosters, the biggest stake offered anywhere for trotters, and historically the most successful in bringing out the greatest spend of the best trotters not having low-record marks.

Most of the fifteen probable starters have trotted miles in 2.13 and 2.18. Hattle Sign and Lady Geraldine are the most discussed favorites. Another feature will be an attempt of The Abbot, 2.884, to lower his record. He has been working this week in 2.08. to Be Inaugurated This Week.

Interesting Light Harness Racing at Interesting Light Harness Racing at the Forest Park Track.

The feature at the matines races given by the Gentlemen's Driving Club yesterday afternoon was the free-for-all pace, a fourheat race, which went to the game little pacer, Adam, entered and driven by W. E. Thomas, Bert Hoffman's fast pacing mare, Teah, winning the second bent. Al West, Jr., owned by Louis Spelbrink, and driven by Mr. Edwards, drove out Adam in the fourth heat in a whipping finish, the latter winning only by a head.

The fastest heat of the senson, trotting or pacing, was marked up to Adam at the end of the first mile. 2:11.

In the exhibition trot Curl Rothenheber drove the Colman Stock Farm entry, Monnutta, to first place in both heats. The purse race for classified trotters was another four-heat event and was won by J. M. Battle's bay mare, Lucania C., handled by Al Dunn, the fourth heat being the fastest, 2:325. In the last race only two pacers got the word, and W. G. Eversole, who drove his maiden race, won behind Doille McGregor the first time she started over the driving club course.

Meeting to Discuss Park Improve-ment Will Be Held This Afternoon. ment Will Be Held This Afternoon.

A meeting fraught with much importance to local coursing men will be held this afternoon at John J. Lavin's, Dehodiamon.

The meeting will be a public one, to which every person interested in coursing will be welcome. It is not a meeting of the St. Louis Coursing Club, though, practically all local coursing men belong to that organization.

The principal business to come up before the meeting will be the discussion of the future of coursing. It is deemed imperative that the coursing park should be enlarged and in many ways improved before October I, when the season will open.

Gentlemen interested in the sport should by no means miss this very important meeting.

A Scant Margin of Three Holes Alone Separated Them at the Finish-Some Very Close Matches.

Golf, like a wooden leg, runs in the blood. Arthur Stickney, the youngest scion of that famous house of golfers, was the star of the match which resulted in the three-down defeat of nine Jockey Club players by nine Field Club men on the links of the latter organization yesterday afternoon. Young Stickney defeated the tried and proven excellent player, Mr. John McGee, a veteran who bears on his goif, if not on his person, the honorable scars of many a victorious fight. At the end of eighteen holes the boy was three up and the possessor of an excellent medal score, spoiled at that by ously felt on the days of his crowds. CRICKET AT FOREST PARK.

"Stay-at-Home" Members of St. Louis C. C. Had an Enjoyable Day.

Notwithstanding the absence of the first eleven of the local cricket team, a very enloyable match was played at Forest Park yesterday between Mr. Simpson's and Mr. Roberts's elevens, which ended in an easy victory for the latter by an inning and seventeen runs, mainly owing to the phenomenal bowling of blarker, who appears to have been overlooked by the captains this season. In the first innings he secured six wickets for two runs, and in the record four wickets for inner runs, making a lotal average of one and one-tenth, or ten wickets for eleven runs. Some of the best hats in the club foll easy victims to his irresistible delivery. Messrs. Dickinson and Robinson, two new members, showed remarkably good form, the latter shaping up well at the wicket. Simpson took six wickets for twenty-eight runs.

the Light Weight a Handsome Profit.

GIVES LITTLE HEED TO ADVICE.

Thinks He Knows His Business and Even if He Does Fail to Knock Out Terry He Becomes Richer.

BY RIGHT CROSS.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. New York, July 14.-The first thing Eve did when she awoke to the realization of a bushand was to give Adam some advice. Now, don't wonder what Adam and Eve has to do with Frank Erne, for this is a true story about the light-weight champion. Eve's advice to Adam was "Get the money. Ad," and this advice has been pretty generally bandled about during the ages

Erne has been getting advice in chunks

All he said was:
"Pooh! Let them think what they please. I know, or think I do, what I'm about."

Between the lines it wasn't such a hard tark to read that Erne knows his little book tark to read that Erne knows his little book and that book is bound in green and yellow covers—the same green and yellow that shows so pleasantly on the back and front of Uncle Sam's promissory notes.

Erne would have to work a year trimming second and third raters to make a tithe of the money he will carn in his one night's stand with the Brooklyn terror.

Fighting is a business, just the same as reiling bonds or peanuts. What recks titles or glory or reputation if not gilded by the lucre that buys the luxuries and necessaries of life?

ries of life? "Why, nothing doing," as my recherche friend Chuck Conners would say. And Erne's wise little head is fully aware of as ever gladdened the eyes and burdened the pockets of any puglist. It is not an einstic stretch of imagination to figure on $50,000 in the Garden Monday night.

These two lads will each take home with him between $12,000 and $12,000. Who wouldn't take a chance of correlling that wad, even if it had to be accomplished by a few broken noses and blue eyes?

The question answers inself.
And that is why Erne is taking what to anthinking and unfinancial souls may seem a long chance with the bruising buster from Brooklyn's breezy burg.
Now, are you on?

JIMMY MICHAEL THE VICTOR. McFarland's Motor Broke Down Near the Fluish.

the Finish.

New York, July 14.—In the presence of 7.600 spectators, with scarcely a broeze to interfere with the riders, Jimmy Michael defeated Floyd McFariand of San Jose, Cal. in a twenty-mile, motor-paced race at the Manhattan Beach track this afternoon. He also clipped 21 2-5 seconds off the track record for the distance.

The conditions of the race were that if an accident happened to either rider of his pacers during the first mile the men were to be recalled and the face started anew. This saved Michael from defeat by a narrow margin. Michael from defeat by a narrow margin. Michael maintained his lead for one lep on the first attempt, but was then passed by McFarland, who led by about five yards, coming down the stretch for the finish of the first mile. Before the latter had reached the tape, however, Michael signaled to the judges that his motor had broken a chain, and he was just in time to save himself from having to continue the race as best he could.

A new machine was brought out. McFarland took the lead.

In the fourteenth mile Michael gradualty race as best be could.

A new machine was brought out. McFarland took the lead.

In the fourteenth mile Michael gradually drew up to McFarland, and, on the back stretch in the second lap of the fourteenth mile he passed the Californian, while the spectators on the stands and in the infield were frantle with delight. Michael soon gained about thirty yards on his opponent, who was still going very evenly. Once more the "Express" got out of order, when Michael was in the lead about forty yards. This was in the fifteenth mile. Fortunately his second machine was near at hand. In making the change he lost scarcely a dozen yards. Two laps later McFarland had a streak of hard luck. His motor, which had been going continuously from the start off, was rendered useless by the snapping of a chain and the bursting of a reartire. The Western cyclist never stopped, but Michael gained a lap and a quarter on his rival and from that point the race was Michael's. All interest in the race was new at an end, as it was seen that McFarland could not win and Michael finished the twentieth mile in Mc28-5, leading McFarland by about 750 yards.

RAINS DELAY WORK.

Huntington Wants Southern Pacific Piers Completed at Once.

Calveston, Tex. July 14.—The excessive raintall in the past two days will seriously retard track building of the Southern Pacific from the Bay Bridge to their wharf terminals. That section of the Island is one sea of water and without any more rain it will be fully ten days before the graders can go to work. About one-half the grading is finished and rails laid upon a portion of it, but the most difficult portion is yet to be built.

the cutting of the channel and the dig-zing out of the stips between the piers is not progressing as rapidly as President Huntington expected, and he has issued rush orders to Engineer Boschke to have three piers ready for the Southern Pacific ships to receive and deliver freight by Sep-tember 1. Mr. Boschke will exhaust every effort to compily with the orders of his chief and is now trying to get another dredge plant here from Mobile, and if he receives it the most difficult part of the work will be overcome and the piers may be ready for the steamers by September 1.
